GQA qualifications are made up of units that have a credit value or credits. This qualification has 1 mandatory unit.

The units are made up of the things you need to know and the things you need to be able to do to carry out your job safely and correctly. These are called Learning Outcomes, and all must be met to achieve the unit.

Assessment Guidance

Evidence should show that you can complete all of the learning outcomes for each unit being taken.

Types of evidence:

This is a knowledge only qualification. Evidence of knowledge can be demonstrated through a combination of written responses to questions, oral Q&A sessions, or guided discussions. Verbal evidence should be audio/video recorded and be fully auditable.

Quantity of evidence:

Evidence should show that you understand the unit content in context of the range and scope shown at the end of the unit.

Potential sources of evidence:

The main source of evidence for the practical aspects of this unit will be either detailed, written answers, recorded guided discussions, or written answers supplemented by recorded discussions.

Please Note that photocopied or downloaded documents such as manufacturers' or industry guidance, H&S policies, Risk Assessments etc, are not normally acceptable evidence for GQA qualifications unless accompanied by a record of a professional discussion or Assessor statement confirming candidate knowledge of the subject. If you are in any doubt about the validity of evidence, please contact your GQA EQA.
