

Summary of the:

GQA LEVEL 2 AWARD IN KNOWLEDGE OF THE PRINT ADMINISTRATION WORKING ENVIRONMENT (Qualification number 600/3245/5) (Welsh Qualification Number C00/1250/5)

Who is this qualification for?

This qualification is aimed at individuals wishing to gain knowledge of the basic requirements of working safely and effectively in an administration role within the print industry and is particularly suited to individuals undertaking an apprenticeship in administration.

Establishing underpinning knowledge and understanding relevant to the administration duties, this qualification is intended to be capable of delivery through both a taught programme of off-the-job learning or through workplace assessment (for those with access to the real workplace). A further qualification is available at Level 3 in administration and there is a suite of qualifications for those employed in production roles within the print industry. Due to the wide range of job roles and the diverse nature of organisations in the print industry it is difficult to give a definitive list of job roles the qualification may be appropriate for but candidates could have jobs entitled:

- Administrator
- Office clerk

Qualifications are now required to indicate the total qualification time (TQT), this is to show the typical time it will take someone to attain the required skills and knowledge to meet the qualification criteria, this qualification has a TQT of 120 hours.

What is required from candidates?

GQA are made up of a number of units that have a credit value or credits. This qualification has 3 mandatory units, which have a value of 12 credits. Candidates must achieve all of the units. The units are made up of the knowledge needed to carry out the work safely and correctly. These are called Learning Outcomes, and all must be met to achieve the unit..
